Spy Cameras Now Available at Spy Tools Directory

Specialty Hidden Cameras, Nanny Cams, and Video Surveillance Tools Available For Purchase Directly Through Site Directory Listings

3/25/04 - Through its affiliate partnership with Combined Safety.com (<http://www.combinedsafety.com>), the Spy Tools Directory is now offering a complete selection of covert spy cameras, nanny cams, and video surveillance equipment directly through its new "Spy Cameras" category (http://www.spy-tools-directory.com/surveillance-equipment/spy-cameras.html) the site announced today.

"We're excited to promote our new affiliate partnership, and make shopping a bit easier for our own site visitors," stated Steve Salm, senior editor.

Site visitors can now browse through the spy camera listings, see photos of what each item looks like, and be taken straight to the product's information/order page to make their online purchase right away.

"Video surveillance via hidden camera placement has always been one of the most popular ways to conduct an investigation or gather evidence on a target individual," said Salm. "The products we are now offering include body-worn cameras, wireless cameras, and stationary items made to look like part of an office or home in the form of desk clocks and books. It's almost impossible to tell that these items are actually hidden spy cameras - they get job done perfectly."

All ordering is handled via secure server online, and most items are available with free shipping.

"By shopping through us, our visitors can be confident in knowing they are buying through the recommendation of a trusted industry source," added Salm.
