Net Detective Named Editor's Pick at Spy Tools Directory

Online Background Check Tool Provides Professional Results at an Affordable Price

5/12/04 - Net Detective (<http://www.the-net-detective.com> - $29), the world's most widely used online private investigation and background check tool, has been named an 'Editor's Pick' by the editorial staff of the Spy Tools Directory.

"It simply works, and works well," stated Steve Salm, lead editor for the Directory. "When you need to find out 'the dirt' on someone, but don't have the money or resources to conduct a professional investigation or hire a background check service, Net Detective is the cost effective answer. Professional results, fast."

With Net Detective, users can search online and offline records databases to obtain criminal records, locate unclaimed money or funds, find driving records, get unlisted numbers and addresses, and more.

"Net Detective is very effective in its ability to utilize internet resources, coupled with advanced search engine features to find data on the web that is normally hidden to the average person. These powerful features, and the affordable price of the system ($29.00 online) are the reasons we have chosen to make Net Detective an 'Editor's Pick' for its respective category," Salm explained.

The 'Editor's Pick' award is bestowed upon products, items, or websites determined by the editors of the Spy Tools Directory to be of exceptional value to its visitors.
